Fletch *
Dustin Fletcher

Dustin Fletcher is the most watched AFL footballer of all time. In 23 seasons, almost 20 million fans have seen 'Fletch' play a record number of games for his beloved Essendon Bombers on the way to becoming one of the most respected and enduring players in Australian Rules history. Fletch is the autobiography of a teen superstar, prodigal son of Essendon legend Ken Fletcher, youngest member of the flag-winning 'Baby Bombers' and staunch defender of the realm against some of the greatest full forwards of all time: Ablett, Lockett, Carey, Kernahan, Jakovich, Fevola. But this is no ordinary man and Fletch is no ordinary sports saga. Dustin Fletcher takes us inside the highs and the lows, including the first-ever insider account from the ASADA drug crisis that rocked Essendon from 2012 - 2015. Honest, explosive, poignant and entertaining, Fletch reads as 'Fletch' kicks - straight, strong and true...

The Healthy Life *
Jess Sepel

Jessica Sepel, a young Sydney-based nutritionist, is following in the footsteps of health bloggers such as Lee Holmes, Lola Berry and Sarah Wilson. Jessica is a trained nutritionist with a burgeoning private practice and a hugely popular health blog. Her philosophy is simple: good health starts in the kitchen. Her focus is on fresh produce, prepared simply and with love. Her work with girls and young women has taught her that the common practice of counting calories and restricting food groups is counterproductive to a healthy relationship with food. Her message is 'get healthy' rather than 'lose weight'. The Healthy Life is fully photographed, and has 100 recipes, meal plans, and a kind approach to creating better health and stress-free living.

Why Did They Do It? *
Cheryl Critchley & Helen McGrath

The cases that stunned Australia - and left us all with one question: Why did they do it? Peter Caruso bludgeoned his wife to death after almost fifty years of happy marriage. John Myles Sharpe killed his pregnant wife and their young daughter with a speargun. Katherine Knight stabbed and skinned her partner with the intention of serving his cooked carcass to his children. These and other crimes, committed by people described as average, ordinary, normal... In Why Did They Do It, respected journalist Cheryl Critchley teams with esteemed psychologist Professor Helen McGrath to meticulously dissect the crimes, the evidence, the testimony, the confessions, and the overwhelming diagnostic evidence to analyse the minds and motivations behind crimes that shocked the nation.

Sonny Ball *
Paul Kent

Part unauthorised biography, part thriller, this is the amazing true story of Sonny Bill Williams, a handsome, powerful and gifted rugby prodigy from small town New Zealand who has become the most talismanic and controversial footballer in the rugby world. An icon across three sports, Sonny Bill Williams has won a Rugby Union World Cup as a New Zealand All Black, triumphed in two National Rugby League premierships with the Roosters (2013) and Bulldogs (2005) and was, until recently, the WBA Heavyweight boxing champion. But Sonny Ball tells a much bigger story than that of one man. It's about professional sport colliding with celebrity culture, the battle between football codes - League, Union and Australian Rules - for sponsor and TV dollars. It's about one man, his agent and his brand. And how everyone they meet - clubs, fans, sponsors, journalists, nations and teammates - ends up playing 'Sonny Ball'.

Pogue's Basics
David Pogue

Did you know that you can dry out your wet cell phone by putting its parts in separate bowls of uncooked rice? That you can scroll through a website using only your spacebar? That if you type your airline and flight number in to Google, it tells you where your flight is, the gate, terminal, and how long until it lands? When David Pogue gave this kind of advice in the New York Times, his columns were consistently the most e-mailed of the week. When he gave a TED Talk of his tips, 1.3 million people watched it in the first 90 days. Pogue's tips have earned him 1.5 million followers on Twitter. And now that he writes his columns for Yahoo Tech, the audience for this advice has grown by millions more. Here at last is the book all these fans have been waiting for: a book of 200 tips that will change your relationship to your phone, computer, tablet, camera—all of the technology in your life.

Disrupt Yourself
Jay Samit

In Disrupt Yourself, innovator and digital media expert Jay Samit reveals how to achieve your goals and permanently alter the status quo through the art of self-disruption. In today's ever-changing and often-volatile business landscape, adaptability and creativity are more crucial than ever. Samit describes how specific strategies that help companies flourish - challenging assumptions, pinpointing one's unique value, and identifying weaknesses in the structure of current industries - can be applied at an individual level. Incorporating stories from his own experience and anecdotes from other innovators and disruptive businesses - including Richard Branson, Steve Jobs, YouTube, the BBC, Virgin Media and many more - Samit shows how personal transformation can reap entrepreneurial and professional rewards.

The Roadside MBA
Michael Mazzeo, Paul Oyer and Scott Schaefer

Paul Oyer, Michael Mazzeo and Scott Schaefer have taught thousands of MBAs at some of the world's leading business schools. While travelling back from an economics conference together they dropped into a shoe store in Maine and chatted to the staff - and quickly realized that the strategic problems faced by small businesses are just as rich and compelling as anything challenging Microsoft or General Electric. These three wise men decided to go in search of real-world case studies that illustrate the key lessons of an MBA. The result is a rollicking American road trip that is both a great introduction for business owners who haven't done an MBA, and an entertaining refresher for those who have.

Ben Crystal and David Crystal

From reconstructing Shakespeare's accent to the rise and fall of Received Pronunciation, actor Ben Crystal and his linguist father David travel the world in search of the stories of spoken English. Everyone has an accent, though many of us think we don't. We all have our likes and dislikes about the way other people speak, and everyone has something to say about 'correct' pronunciation. But how did all these accents come about, and why do people feel so strongly about them?

A Thousand Miles to Freedom
Eunsun Kim with Sebastien Falletti

Eunsun Kim was born in North Korea, one of the most secretive and oppressive countries in the modern world. As a child Eunsun loved her country... despite her school field trips to public executions, daily self-criticism sessions, and the increasing gnaw of hunger as the country-wide famine escalated. By the time she was eleven years old, Eunsun's father and grandparents had died of starvation, and Eunsun was in danger of the same. Finally, her mother decided to escape North Korea with Eunsun and her sister, not knowing that they were embarking on a journey that would take them nine long years to complete.

The Eight Limbs of Yoga
Stuart Ray Sarbacker and Kevin Kimple

Many people think yoga simply means postures and breathing. Not true. The intention of this short guide is practical and straightforward: to say what yoga really is and to apply its principles to everyday life. It leads us through the eight-limbed system, a coherent framework that has been handed down and elaborated upon for thousands of years and consists of five "outer limbs," which pertain to our experience of the social world and the operation of our senses, and three "inner limbs," which focus on the mind.
