CUPID PAINTED BLIND TEACHERS NOTES

These notes are designed for use whilst reading the book, for activities within the classroom, and as extended tasks. The questions after each chapter will assist in bringing together what is being read. As an alternative there are ongoing tasks which can be used at any stage throughout the reading of the book. Extended writing tasks are also included which will involve creative writing. In addition, potential essay topics have also been provided for reflection, extension and assessment at the end of the unit.

EXTENDED WRITING TASKS

1. Take one of the scenes in Cupid Pained Blind and rewrite it as a script for a play.
2. Rewrite a scene from A Midsummer Night's Dream into a chatroom format.
3. Imagine you are Wez. Write an account of your experience at the social.
4. Write an account of the last rehearsal from Melissa's perspective.
5. Write the report that Mrs Ahern would have given the group performance. Include casting decisions, working as a group, acting skills, direction and the mark you would give them.

ESSAY TOPICS

(ALSO MAY BE USED AS DEBATE TOPICS)

1. 'The course of true love never did run smoothly'.

Discuss this in terms of one of the following relationships:

Susan and Nick
Seph and Tom
Pia and Simon
Seph and Wez

2. Compare the experience of love or friendship in Cupid Painted Blind and A Midsummer Night's Dream.
3. Are Seph and her friends blind? Discuss in terms of at least two of the characters in Cupid Painted Blind.
4. 'Love and hate are often interchangeable'

Discuss in terms of three of the characters in Cupid Painted Blind.
