Outlaw Bikers in Australia

McNabb, Duncan

In 2013, Australia achieved a unique place in the history of outlaw motorcycle gangs, boasting the highest per capita membership in the world.

Drawing on his experience as a former Sydney detective, Duncan McNabb gives the inside history of outlaw biker gangs in Australia. From the bad old days of the 1960s when the first outlaw biker clubs entered into amphetamine manufacture through to the Sydney airport brawl between the Hell's Angels and Comancheros culminating in the brutal death of Anthony Zervas, 'Outlaw Bikers in Australia' sheds light on how the 'one per cent deviants' have gained a stranglehold on the recreational drug market and are becoming major players in the international outlaw scene.

It's Too Late to Die Young Now

Mueller, Andrew

There is no field of journalism more mythologised or more derided than rock journalism - with good reason, according to Andrew Mueller. And he'd know. Starting out writing for the Sydney music street press in his teens, by his early twenties, Mueller was working for the legendary UK music weekly 'Melody Maker', earning a living by listening to records, going to gigs, hanging out in seedy pubs and travelling the world with his favourite rock groups. In barely two years, he went from a childhood bedroom with a poster of Robert Smith to The Cure's tour bus in the United States. Though it didn't seem like it at the time, the years Mueller was living the dream - the late-eighties to the mid-nineties - were actually the last hurrah for the music scene as we knew it.

Rob Paxevanos' Australian Fishing Basics

Paxevanos, Rob

Like most things, the devil is in the detail when it comes to fishing. It's all about choosing the right hook, line, bait and position. It's about learning how to berley, polaroid, cast off and tie a knot that won't untie.

For nearly two decades, Rob Paxevanos - star of WIN's 'Fishing Australia' - has been perfecting the fine detail, and showing others how to do the same. 'Australian Fishing Basics' brings together years of expertise and the kind of knowledge needed to turn enthusiastic beginners into expert anglers. And it's not just sweating the small stuff. Rob provides an overview of how to confidently go after Australia's most popular catches, including flathead, golden perch, trout and barramundi.

Planet Elephant

Matson, Tammie

From the jungles of Borneo to the black markets of Vietnam, Dr Tammie Matson continues her quest to reduce the human-elephant conflict around the world. In this follow-up to her bestselling memoir 'Elephant Dance', Tammie takes on the black markets of Asia determined to break the chains of rhino-horn poaching and the illegal ivory trade. Travelling from her new home in Singapore throughout South-East Asia, she meets presidents and traffickers in palaces and tourist markets, journeying to the dark heart of a dark industry. Returning to her beloved Africa, she finds old friends facing rough times and animals on the brink. Torn between her passionate commitment to conservation and her precious growing son, Tammie faces her biggest challenge yet, balancing work and family.

Hold the Line

Scarlett, Matthew

For Geelong fans, Matthew Scarlett is an AFL legend. One of the most popular and long-standing players in the history of the club, Scarlett is an old-fashioned type of footballer - a one-club man whose hard work and commitment on the footy field is legendary, and whose passion for winning is strong enough to galvanise a whole club.

An instinctive player and a natural strategist, Scarlett played a key role in Geelong's three premiership victories of 2007, 2009 and 2011. Known as a man of few words, in 'Hold the Line', Scarlett gives us the inside run of what went into making the Cats unbeatable, shares his views on his teammates and coaches, and gives us the dirt on the Geelong's bitter rivalry with St Kilda Football Club.

Mediterranean Diet, The

Itsiopoulos, Dr. Catherine

The Mediterranean Diet is one of the most respected and prescribed diets in the world. Its positive health effects have been rigorously tested for more than 60 years, and the results are incontrovertible. The diet is as effective as drugs in treating heart and diabetes, and can prevent both conditions. It aids weight loss, promotes longevity and slows the progress of Alzheimer's. Dr Catherine Itsiopoulos has spent her working life researching the diet. In her first book for a general audience, she offers an accessible and scientifically proven version of the diet specifically for Australians.

Chopper 2: Hits & Memories

Read, Mark

Underworld standover man and executioner Mark Brandon "Chopper" Read was released from Pentridge Prison in November, 1991, vowing never to return. He became an instant celebrity when his autobiography 'Chopper: From the Inside' hit the bestseller lists (it also holds the record as Australia's most shoplifted book). Six months later he was back in jail writing his second volume of memoirs. In this sequel, Chopper reveals his struggle to cope with "civilian life", from the highs of gambling thousands of dollars at a legal casino to the lows of facing the rest of his life in prison.

Under the Wire

Conroy, Paul

Determined to cover the Syrian regime's brutal crackdown on dissent and the devastating impact of the war on Syria's civilians, veteran photographer Paul Conroy and Marie Colvin, one of the foremost war correspondents of her generation, decided to smuggle themselves across enemy lines and into the blood and terror of Homs.

But tragedy struck before the pair could finish documenting the slaughter. A rocket killed Colvin and ripped a hole in Conroy's leg. As Syrian ground forces closed in on his position, Conroy was forced to make a terrifying last-ditch attempt to escape from a regime that appeared determined to murder him.

Chopper 3: How to Shoot Friends and Influence People

Read, Mark

'How to Shoot Friends and Influence People', Mark Brandon "Chopper" Read's third book, was written behind bars as Chopper faced life in prison for a shooting he claimed he didn't commit. For this book, Chopper obtained confidential and extensive prison files relating to him under the Freedom of Information Act. These included psychological assessments, plus prison classification and discipline records. They provide a fascinating insight into how this maverick criminal dealt with the prison system over two decades. Includes the infamous story of Tanya and Eddy, Chopper's coming-of-age yarn from his 18th birthday, and what it's like to be the most famous author in residence at Risdon Prison.

Give Me Excess of It

Gill, Richard

Richard Gill is one of Australia's best-known - and best-loved - musical figures. His career has taken him from teaching music in Sydney's western suburbs to Music Director of the Victorian Opera, and along the way an involvement with almost every major opera company and orchestra in Australia. What truly distinguishes Richard is his passion for spreading not just the joy of music, but its myriad benefits. He is our greatest musical educator, and his life's work - alongside his other roles - has been advocating music in our education system, and furthering the development of those who've gone on to choose music as a vocation. This memoir traces his life from school days to the highs (and lows) of conducting and directing an opera company. It's warm, funny, highly opinionated and always sublimely full of the love of music.

Chopper 1: From the Inside

Read, Mark

Mark Brandon "Chopper" Read is the son of a strict Seventh Day Adventist mother and a shell-shocked soldier who slept with a loaded gun at his side. He became a criminal legend who terrorised drug dealers, pimps, thieves and armed robbers on the streets and in jail - but boasts he never hurt an innocent member of the public. This first volume of Chopper's memoirs, written from inside jail, tells the story of his early life of crime - from streetfighter to standover man, gunman to long-term prisoner. 'Chopper: From the Inside' gives us a gripping insight into Australia's underworld.
